independent third-party sources. However, Moody's is not an auditor and cannot in every instance independently verify or validate information received in the rating process. Under no circumstances shall Moody's have any liability to any person or entity for (a) any loss or damage in whole or in part caused by, resulting from, or relating to, any error (negligent or otherwise) or other circumstance or contingency within or outside the control of Moody's or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents in connection with the procurement, collection, compilation, analysis, interpretation, communication, publication or delivery of any such information, or (b) any direct, indirect, special, consequential, compensatory or incidental damages whatsoever (including without limitation, lost profits), even if Moody's is advised in advance of the possibility of such damages, resulting from the use of or inability to use, any such information.

The assignment of a rating does not create a fiduciary relationship between Moody's and you or between Moody's and other recipients of the rating. Moody's has not consented to and will not consent to being named as an "expert" under the applicable securities laws, including, without limitation, Section 7 of the Securities Act of 1933.
